What are your hobbies? What are your favorite sporting teams? College? Professional? I enjoy going on walks, playing basketball, reading and watching Netflix.

What are the popular spiritual writings that you would recommend to other men and women discerning their life vocation? I would recommend "To Save a Thousand Souls" and "Surrender."

Who are your favorite saints? Why are they your favorite saints? I have a strong devotion to Our Lady and Padre Pio. I am inspired by their humility, dying to self, and total surrender to the Father.

Who are the people (priests, religious and laity) that have influenced your vocational discernment to this point in your journey? Two priests who have strongly influenced my discernment are Msgr. Charles Singler and my college formator Reverend John Rozenbajgier.

What are your hopes for the future of the Catholic Church? My hope is for the people of God to grow in love and their willingness to surrender to God.

What advice would you offer young people about discerning a vocation to the priesthood and religious life? The vocation of the priesthood is a beautiful mystery and it is one where if you feel called, then allow yourself to enter into it.
