LIBELLUS
PETITION FOR A DECLARATION OF NULLITY
THROUGH THE DOCUMENTARY PROCESS

I,           Your full name (incl. maiden)          , a           Your religion at marriage          , hereby exercise my right to challenge my marriage before the Toledo Tribunal in accord with canon 1674, §1, 1<sup>o</sup>, and I request a declaration of the nullity of my marital consent exchanged with           Respondent's full name (incl. maiden)          , a           Respondent's religion at marriage          , on           Date of marriage           in           County of marriage          ,           City, state, country of marriage           at           Venue of marriage (Church name, court name, etc.)           .

I contend that my marital consent was null from the very beginning due to:

Please consult the Grounds of Nullity Explanations document (Impediments section) to determine which ground is most applicable. Be sure to write the canon number and say who it applies to: the Petitioner, the Respondent, or both parties.

In support of this claim, I submit the following authentic documents:

Please consult the Grounds of Nullity Explanations document to determine which documents are necessary for which Impediments. Be sure to enclose the original and authentic (signed & sealed) recently issued (last 6 months) documents in question.

I understand that no assurance can be given of an affirmative decision, that is, one which recognizes that the marriage was invalid, nor can assurance be made of a definite timeline for the completion of this process. Furthermore, I understand that absolutely no arrangements can be made for a future Catholic marriage or convalidation unless and until I have received a final and favorable decision from the Toledo Tribunal and any and all appeals Tribunals to which this matter may be directed. I recognize that this process is an entirely ecclesiastical one with religious effects and has no legal effect in the civil sphere. I understand that the Respondent has a right to be informed of this process and will receive a copy of this libellus (c. 1688; cf. cc. 1676, 1508 §2).

My current address is:

Please give your full mailing address for the purpose of receiving written communication.

The Respondent's current address is:

Please give the Respondent's full mailing address for the purpose of receiving written communication. Please note that failing to provide the correct address will result in case delays.

I swear before God and my conscience that all that is contained in this libellus is submitted freely by myself, the Petitioner, and is true to the best of my knowledge and memory.
