* No check will be issued until a W-4 form has been properly completed and submitted to the CYO Office. A social security number and birthdate must be included on this form for it to be processed. An I-9 form must also be completed and proper documents presented. In order to receive the first check on 9/30, your W-4 form, I-9 and acceptable documents MUST have been submitted no later than 9/16.

Officials licensed by the State of Ohio to officiate high school games need NOT submit a W-4 form. You will, however, be paid according to the above schedule and are required to submit a W-9 form.

 Officials will be paid $5.00 per training session he/she attended after working in the program. Officials will receive a CYO t-shirt that must be worn at all matches and the cost of this t-shirt will be $5.00 for short sleeved (more for long sleeved), which will be deducted from the first check.

Potential officials will not be paid for meetings attended if he/she does not work in the CYO refereeing program.

All checks will be mailed directly from the diocesan payroll office to the address submitted on the W-4 form on the date of issue.

Please note that although the check stub will read "for pay period ending", only the dates included are listed above. Please follow this chart for the entire season.
